ERICA ANN

Erica is a designer and natural builder. She has built projects ranging from timberframe, cordwood and strawbale to cob and adobe. She has trained with leading Natural Builders in America and abroad including the Cob Cottage Company in Coquille, OR, and EcoNest in Santa Fe, NM. She is also a passionate Permaculturist and huge advocate of alternative cooking and baking. She has recently come back to America from Thailand where she taught children and women's groups about Cob Ovens and how to use them.
